

Pappas Broadcasting donation of $325,00 worth of air time to Republican candidates during this election period should not be allowed. Pappas has free access to the airwaves which, I understand, belong to the people and has an obligation to present unbiased information or, at least equal time to opposing points of view. This donation of airtime is illegal and immoral and should not be allowed.